

Bertie Singleton naval record

(Notes and photographs from various Wikipedia entries)

Enlisted 7th November 1907

Rating	Ship	From	To	Notes
Stoker II	Nelson	7 Oct 1907	30 Jun 1908	Armoured cruiser used as training ship until scrapped n 1910
Stoker II	Berwick	1 July 1908	19 Aug 1908	Monmouth Class armoured cruiser. She accidentally rammed and sank a British destroyer in 1908.
Stoker II	Victory	20 Aug 1908	30 Aug 1908	Shore station
Stoker II	Edgar	1 Sept 1908	30 sept 1908	First class cruiser built 1890
Stoker II/I	Hermes	1 Oct 1908	9 Jan 1909	Cruiser
Stoker I	Hawke	21 Dec 1909	18 Jan 1911	Edgar Class protected cruiser. Home Fleet. In September 1911 she collided with RMS Olympic in the Solent.
Stoker I	Victory II	19 Jan 1911	21 Feb 1911	Shore station

Stoker I	Grafton	22 Jan 1911	14 Aug 1912	Edgar Class protected cruiser
Stoker I	Victory II	13 Aug 1912	13 Nov 1912	Shore station
Stoker I	Princess Royal	14 Nov 1912	21 Nov 1913	Lion Class battlecruiser: Laid down in 1912 and commissioned in 1913.
Stoker I	Victory II	22 Nov 1913	28 Nov 1913	Shore station
Stoker I	Albermarle	29 Nov 1913	5 Feb 1914	Battleship. Re-fitted Dec 1912, On 15 May 1913, she was reduced to a nucleus crew and assigned to the 6th Battle Squadron, Second Fleet, to serve as a gunnery training ship.
Stoker I		6 Feb 1914	2 Mar 1914	28 days detention for absence (AWOL)
Stoker I	Pembroke II	3 Mar 1914	17 Mar 1914	Shore base at Chatham, ship used as depot ship.
Stoker I	Victory II	18 Mar 1914	2 Jun 1915	Shore base
Stoker I	Achilles	3 Jun 1915	10 Aug 1915	Armoured cruiser

Stoker I	Victory II	11 Aug 1915	9 Oct 1916	Shore base
Stoker I/ acting Leading Stoker	Implacable After a refit in March, she returned to the 3rd Detached Squadron and was based at Salonika. In June 1917, Implacable was at Athens during the abdication of King Constantine I of Greece	10 Oct 1916	10 Jul 1917	Formidable class battleship.
acting LS/ Leading Stoker I	Blenheim	11 July 1917	10 Nov 1917	Protected cruiser
Leading Stoker I	Egremont	11 Nov 1917	31 Mar 1918	A previous Achilles was renamed Egremont in 1918. Initially an ironclad frigate, she was a depot ship at Chatham in 1916-18.

Leading Stoker I	Wallington	1 Apr 1918	16 May 1918	Cruiser used at Chatham a guard ship.
Leading Stoker I	Pembroke II	17 May 1918	27 Jun 1918	Shore barracks, Chatham
Leading Stoker I	Victory II	28 Jun 1918	24 July 1918	Shore base
L Stoker/ Stoker I	Glory IV	25 Jul 1918	4 Mar 1919	Reverted to Stoker I at own request Formerly the Russian cruiser Askold , seized by the British in 1918 and used as a depot ship until she was returned to the Soviet Navy in 1920
Stoker I	Monitor 25 (Glow Worm) For log book see http://www.naval-history.net/OWShips-WW1-03-HMS_M.25.htm	5 Mar 1919	31 May 1919	River Gun Boat Intended as a shore bombardment vessel. She served in the British intervention in Russia in 1919, and was scuttled in the Dvina River on 16 September, 1919. saw service in May, along with five other monitors at Murmansk in May 1919 to relieve the North Russian Expeditionary Force. The allies fought in the Russian revolution with the White Russians against the Bolsheviks, who won!
Stoker I	Fox	1 Jun 1919	15 July 1919	Bertie was fortunate to leave Glow Worm when he did as in August it was blown up accidentally on the Dvina river by an ammunition barge coming alongside with many crew members killed.
	See: http://www.naval-history.net/WW1z05NorthRussia.htm for detail on this little known action in Northern Russia.
Stoker I	Victory II	16 Jul 1919	8 Nov 1919
	He was paid a war gratuity. Discharged November 1919 An entry in the Remarks column suggests he re-enlisted at Chatham 21 st October 1920.			