

Bingham Back in Time

Our major research project is now finished and our book describing the project and results is now available from Eaton Place News Bar, Bingham Library or 19 Church Street. The price is just £12.50.

Alternatively, it is available by post to UK addresses at £15.00 per copy including post and packing. Just print off the page below, fill in the details, enclose a cheque and send it off to us.

For foreign addresses please email bhta@binghamheritage.org.uk for prices.

Eight chapters take you through the fascinating story of the settlement of Bingham from pre-historic times to the present day – over 500,000 years of history. The 140 pages are lavishly illustrated in full colour with over 200 photographs and 70 maps. It gives details of the town and parish in 1586, 12776 and 1841 with family names and details of where they lived.
