

ATS (Auxiliary Territorial Service)	Mrs Maude Whitehead	Source: RBL list of members	The ATS was formed in 1938, the Auxiliary Territorial Service tasked women with a range of vital roles during the Second World War. It was disbanded in 1949, when the remainder of its troops transferred to the newly formed Women's Royal Army Corps.
Born	11 September, 1883
1939 Register	Newgate St, Bingham Maude Whitehead, b. 11 Sep 1883, married Lilian Nunley (formerly Whitehead) b. 14 May 1919 Elsie Goddard (formerly Tinsley Whitehead), b. 9 Jun 1921, single Bill Whitehead, b. 29 July 1925, single		Charwoman and home duties Dressmaker Laundry clerk, Nottingham Coop Society  Public works errand and mash boy
1939 Register - husband	Long Acre Row, Bingham John Whitehead, b. 24 Dec 1882, married Mabel E Jarvis (Hill), b. 29 Nov 1887, widowed William John Philips, b. 13 Mar 1839, married Henry Cosgrove, b. 19 May 1898, married		Chimney Sweep and general labourer Machinist (Hosiery) Contractors Plasterer Contractors Plasterer
Marriage and children	In 1907 John Whitehead married Maude Parker in Bingham. She was the daughter of Charles and Elizabeth Parker 1910 son Jim 1911 daughter Elizabeth 1914 son Herbert 1919 daughter Lilian 1921 daughter Elsie 1925 son Bill			John Whitehead served with the Royal Engineers in WW1
1911 census	Living in Newgate Street John Whitehead Wife: Maude b.1884 Bingham Son Jim b. 1909 Bingham		Chimney Sweep (own account)
1941	John Whitehead died aged 58 Nottingham. Probate: died at General Hospital 17th December 1941; address 6 Long Acre Row, Bingham. Estate £177 7s 3d. Granted to widow Maude Whitehead.
Post 1945

Death	Maude died Dec qtr 1973 Bingham
-------	---------------------------------	--	--